FOUNDATION GOVERNORS

St Joseph's School currently has two vacancies for Foundation Governors.

Being a governor is a chance to have an influence over the education the school provides and the decisions which are made to shape the future education for our children. Governors make decisions about many aspects of the school including the vision, curriculum, staffing and the school's finances.

The Governor role is vital to the education of our children; our governors are greatly valued and appreciated. The idea of being a governor may seem a little daunting, but please don't worry - a vast amount of training, support and advice will be provided.

There are different types of governor role. The two vacancies we have are for Foundation Governors. The Foundation Governors do not need to be related to any one in school - the role is an opportunity to serve in the community. A Foundation Governor needs to be a practising Catholic and is appointed by the Bishop.

If you, or anyone you know, may be interested in finding out more about becoming a Foundation Governor, please contact Mrs Kelly for further information about the role.
